Present: Tom McKenna, Mike Smith, Don Birgel, and John Caffrey

Absent: Roger Gardner and Sandra Aultman

Also Present: Bob Moffit, Tom Winarski, Mike Hargrave (Airport Manager) and Sherry Kerley.

Meeting was called to order at 8:38 a.m. by John Caffrey.

Minutes reviewed for November meeting.

Motion by McKenna seconded by Birgel to accept minutes as read.

Motion passed.

Motion to approve Warrants by Smith seconded by McKenna: 16-013 for $ 390.54
16-014 for 610.96
16-015 for 2,553.56

Motion passed.

Manager Hargrave reported that snow equipment is ready for use, haven't had to use it yet.

Hargrave also reported that Operation Christmas Cheer was a success. There were six planes including one really big one. They were all loaded to capacity with toys and bicycles for Foster Children in Gladwin and Arenac counties. Mike Smith reported that the toys were for 60 children total, and that two of the pilots did a low fly-over formation for the children.

Hargrave reported that he purchased an 18 inch chain saw for the Airport, it is being used to clear trees around the runway.

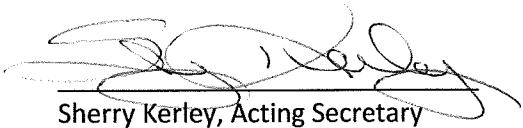

A King Air will be arriving today for executives to do business with Brown in Beaverton.

Our Holiday Pot Luck Dinner will be next Thursday at 5 p.m. here at the Airport.

Motion by Smith, seconded by Birgel to adjourn meeting.

Motion passed.

Meeting ended at 9 a.m.

Sherry Kerley, Acting Secretary
